TRINITY COLLEGE, DUBLIN,

January 28th, 1905.

To

The Board of Intermediate Education.

GENTLEMEN,

I am directed by the Provost and Senior Fellows to convey to you the following resolutions:—

The Provost and Senior Fellows of Trinity College, Dublin, with a view to establishing closer relations between Intermediate and University Education in Ireland, have founded twelve yearly exhibitions of £40 (to be paid in four half-yearly instalments) for boys or girls who have distinguished themselves at either the Senior or Middle Grade Intermediate Examination in each year, and who will undertake to pursue their education at Trinity College, Dublin, under conditions below specified.

Sir John Nutting has added to these, with spontaneous liberality, ten exhibitions of £100 each, on like conditions, but confined to students from the uncendowed schools in Ireland.

The Provost and Senior Fellows, therefore, invite the Intermediate Board to select from their next yearly list the twenty-two candidates thus qualified, whom they think most deserving, and send their names to the Senior Lecturer, with a surplus list of ten candidates who might succeed to any places not filled from the first list.

The Provost and Senior Fellows, relying fully upon the experience and judgment of the Intermediate Board, do not add any limitations or advices, beyond the recommendation laid down in the College Statutes, that, in cases of equal or proximate merit, "ratio paupertatis habeatur."

The conditions of holding these Exhibitions are as follows:—

1. The Exhibitioners must keep terms with regularity in Trinity College, Dublin.
2. They must distinguish themselves at least once a year in some Honour Examination appointed for their class in the College.
3. They must maintain a good moral character, and submit, when in the College, to its ordinary discipline, and pay Pensioners' fees.

N.B.—These Exhibitions are open to boys and girls alike. They are not required to live in the College, or necessarily to attend lectures, though this latter is strongly recommended. All the higher prizes of the College, Scholarships, Studentships, &c., are subsequently open to their competition.

I am,

Gentlemen,

Yours truly,

(Signed) R. Y. TYRRELL,

Registrar.

SIR,

The Board at their Meeting on the 9th instant had under consideration your letter of the 28th ultimo.

The Board gratefully recognise the expression of confidence conveyed by the Board of Trinity College in proposing to place at their disposal the exhibitions mentioned in your letter.

They think, however, that they would best discharge the duties cast upon them by the Intermediate Education Acts by placing a University offering such prizes to Intermediate students in full possession of the information as to the educational merits of students which may be derived from the results of the annual examinations held by the Board.

The Board have passed a resolution to this effect, under which the Board of Trinity College can have before them, when appointing to exhibitions, the only materials at the disposal of the Intermediate Board by which the relative merits of students could be estimated. This information consists of the returns of the marks awarded by the Examiners to the several candidates, and, if the Board of Trinity College so desires, the written answers of the students.

We are, Sir,

Your obedient Servants,

Signed, { T. J. BELLINGHAM BRADY,
SWIFT PAINE JOHNSTON,

Assistant Commissioners.
